Title I School Parent and Family Engagement Written Policy
2018-2019

Communication will be provided for all parents of children served in the Title I program in the following ways:

- Fall Back-to-School Night
- Newsletters
- Progress Reports
- School Parent and Family Engagement Written Plan
- Parent/Teacher Conferences
- Parent Workshop Night
- Family Fun Night
- Parent Survey (end of year)
- Additional meetings as needed

Input from parents of Title I students is always important. The following comments/suggestions were given by parents for this year's plan:

Parents commented that additional guidance/supports for home would be helpful with new math standards. Online math resources were suggested as an additional resource for parents at home as well as student practice book pages.

Workshops/conferences for teachers and parents in Title I schools are encouraged. The following topics were suggested by parents for this year's plan:

Parents suggested a workshop focused on tips and strategies for helping with homework. They also thought additional resources for reinforcing math concepts would be beneficial.
